

The background is a vibrant watercolor illustration. On the right side, there is a stylized figure of a person wearing a bright green top and yellow pants, with a large, colorful floral arrangement on their head. The flowers are in shades of red, orange, and pink. The rest of the background is filled with abstract, swirling watercolor patterns in various colors like blue, green, and yellow. The text is written in a black, cursive script over the central part of the image.
